

'President'

The President is the leader of a club or society and oversees the group's activity. As President, you will provide support, advice and guidance to the other committee members, developing and managing the direction of the group. Experience of what the group does is important, as is dedication to the club or society's aims and objectives.

Skills Required:

- Leadership
- Conflict resolution
- Communication
- Dedication
- People management
- Motivation of others
- Organisation
- Delegation
- Change management

Key Responsibilities:

- Upholding club or society constitution
- Accountability as a group signatory and understanding what this means
- Lead on Development Plan and oversee implementation of this, includes group's aims
- Calling and Chairing meetings
- Delegation of tasks
- Figurehead of your group to your committee, members, Students' Union and the University
- Motivation of committee and members