Who would you be?

The election nomination period is well under way and you may not have considered running, however maybe you should?

Standing in the Sabbatical elections are a great way to get more involved in the student experience and make the most of your time at University, helping you to stand out from the crowd, when the time comes to graduate.

At University, you have the best opportunity you will ever have to make a difference - to your own life, and to others. You'll never get this chance again. Don't be a sheep, take advantage of all the opportunities available to stand out from the crowd and make a difference.

Ways to get involved

Check out our Election12 page on www.ussu.co.uk/yourunion. It features details of the full election timetable, a guide to the elections as well as the nomination pack, should you wish to stand.

'Nominate Yourself' click on the link on the www.ussu.co.uk homepage and put yourself forward to be part of our next Sabbatical Team. Decided it's not for you, but know someone you think would be perfect? Let them know anonymously with our 'Tell Someone How you Really Feel' form on the www.ussu.co.uk home page.

Finally, VOTE when the voting period opens during the 26th – 30th March
